Representative Dolores Gresham is the legislature's foremost advocate for the unborn.

Representative Gresham is the prime sponsor of a constitutional amendment to restrict abortions in Tennessee. This amendment will allow voters to empower the legislature to place common sense restrictions on abortion such as a 48 hour waiting period and state regulation of abortion facilities.

“Dolores Gresham’s demonstrated commitment to promoting respect for human life is matched by her compassion and concern for the women, children and families of this state.”
